Fall into another world

October 1st through December 31st 2020

This challenge will encourage readers to read outside their comfort zone, to read about another time or another place and get to know our whole world a little better.

This challenge is meant to help expand our horizons through reading. There is so much world out there to see. As travel has been limited this year we want to help people see the world through the pages of a book.

If you are having trouble finding a book for a category visit milltownpubliclibrary.org and look at the programming section to find the Fall reading challenge pages that have suggestions for most categories.

You can sign up at the library and pick up a paper logging form or use the beanstack app to sign up and log your books.

When you sign up you will receive a new Milltown Public Library Cinch Sack.

For each 5 books you read you will reach a new prize level.

5 books - Durable bookmark

10 books - Matching 5x7 notebook & pen

15 books - Snack and Zipper Pull

All 20 books - Fall craft bag

You will be entered in a drawing for a prize basket at the end of the challenge.

Each person who registers will receive an entry; each time you reach another 5 book level you will receive an additional entry in the drawing.

The drawing winner will be announced on Monday, January 4th.
